

Biodata of
Ambassador Tove Bruvik Westberg

Ms. Westberg joined the Norwegian Foreign Service in 1990. From September 2020 she is the Norwegian Ambassador to Portugal as well as Ambassador-designate to the Republic of Guinea-Bissau and to the Republic of Cabo Verde. Ms. Westberg has previously been posted to Norwegian embassies in Brazil, Mozambique, Kenya and Romania. Between 2008 and 2013 she served as Ambassador to Mozambique, and was also accredited to Mauritius and Swaziland. From 2013 to 2017 she was Ambassador to Romania, accredited also to the Republic of Moldova and to Bulgaria. Ms. Westberg is married to a now retired Norwegian diplomat, Mr. Tor Christian Hildan. She is the mother of four and has two grandchildren. Born in Høyanger, Norway.