

Checklist for application for Norwegian National Identity Number

The Royal Norwegian Embassy in Nairobi

All documentation requirements must be finalised before the appointment. Your application will not be processed if the document requirements are not met. Please go to our website for more information.

Documentation requirements:

- Go to Skatteetaten's webpage first and go through the checklist: Norwegian national identity number to get a passport - The Norwegian Tax Administration \(skatteetaten.no\)
- Original and valid passport (must include photo, date of birth and signature) of the parent(s) attending the appointment.
 - If the passport is not Norwegian, a certified true copy must also be brought to the appointment.
 - Ensure that the passport is signed under "Passport holder's signature".
 - If the passport is with the visa section in connection with an application, you must collect it before the appointment with the consular section.
- Consent given by both parents:
 - If both parents are listed on the birth certificate, the embassy will need consent from both parents for the application.
 - If one parent cannot attend the appointment, please see here: Samtykke
- Original birth certificate
 - The birth certificate must be legalised by the competent authority before the appointment.
 - Original documents must be submitted to the embassy to carry out the necessary inspections. They will be returned once the application is completed.
 - If you do not wish for original documents to be sent to Skatteetaten then you must bring certified true copies of the documents.
- If the child is a dual citizen, their other passport should be brought to the appointment.
- 1 passport-sized photo to accompany the application.
 - When a National Identity Number is issued, the child will have to come back to the embassy to take biometrics for the passport.
- Proof of legal residency (for Norwegian citizens):
 - Valid Kenyan passport/visa/residence permit
 - Valid Somali passport/visa/residence permit
- If the parents are not registered as married in Norway (j.f. folkeregisteret) then you must bring documentation on the mother's civil status at the time the child was born.
 - This documentation must be legalised by the competent authority.
 - Original documents must be submitted to the embassy to carry out the necessary inspections. They will be returned once the application is completed.
 - If you do not wish for original documents to be sent to Skatteetaten then you must bring certified true copies of the documents.
- Reference number from Oslo University Hospital for DNA-testing
- Confirmation of paid passport fees
 - See more information here.