

CURRICULUM VITAE

RUT KRÜGER GIVERIN

Born on 10 October 1971

Married to Simon William Giverin

Three children: Oscar (1999), Albert (2001) and Magnus (2003)

Ambassador Giverin is a career diplomat with broad experience from living and working in four continents over the last 20 years. She joined the Norwegian Foreign Service in 1998. Since 2017 she has been serving as Ambassador of Norway to Mexico with side accreditation to six countries in Central America.

Her first posting was to Indonesia from 2001 to 2004. During that period she learnt Indonesian and travelled extensively throughout the archipelago. Her third child, Magnus, was born in Jakarta in 2003. In her spare time, she enjoys nature and spending time outdoors, travelling, running marathons and scuba diving.

Professional Experience

Career diplomat, joined the Foreign Service in 1998.

2021 –	Ambassador-Designate of Norway to Indonesia
2017 – 2021	Ambassador of Norway to Mexico and Central America
2015 – 2017	Director, Section for Human Resources Strategy and Professional Development, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Oslo
2013 – 2015	Director and Rector of the Foreign Service Institute, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Oslo
2011 – 2013	Assistant Director, Section for Competence and Organizational Development, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Oslo
2008 – 2011	Political Counsellor, Royal Norwegian Embassy in Khartoum, Sudan
2006 – 2008	Adviser, Section for Peace and Reconciliation, Department for UN and Humanitarian Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Oslo
2004 – 2006	First Secretary, Royal Norwegian Embassy, London, United Kingdom
2001 – 2004	First Secretary, Royal Norwegian Embassy, Jakarta, Indonesia
1998 – 2001	Diplomatic Trainee, Foreign Service Institute and the Norwegian Agency for Development, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Oslo

Higher Education

1996 – 1997	MA European Studies, College of Europe, Bruges, Belgium
1995 – 1996	Certificat d'Etudes Politiques, Institut d'Etudes Politiques, Paris, France
1992 - 1995	University of Oslo. Studies in political science, history, Spanish and international law. Specialised in international relations.

Languages

Norwegian, English, Spanish and French – fluent

Indonesian – working level