PART I: SPECIFIC CONDITIONS

This grant agreement (the Agreement) has been entered into between:

- (1) The Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MFA), represented by the Royal Norwegian Embassy in Jakarta (the Embassy) and
- (2) The Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska on behalf of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, a public higher education institution duly established in the United States of America under Nebraska Revised Statutes Chapter 85, jointly referred to as the Parties.

1 SCOPE AND BACKGROUND

- 1.1 The Grant Recipient has submitted an proposal to MFA dated March 8, 2018 (the Application) regarding financial support to the project titled Developing a yield gap atlas to guide sustainable intensification on existing oil palm plantation area in Indonesia (the Project). The estimated costs of the Project are indicated in the budget attached as Annex A to this Agreement.
- 1.2 MFA has decided to award a grant to be used exclusively for the implementation of the Project (the Grant). The Parties expect the Project to be implemented during the period from May 2018 – June 30, 2019 (the Support Period).
- 1.3 The Parties have agreed to enter into an Agreement, consisting of this part I; Specific Conditions, part II; General Conditions, and part III; Procurement Provisions, all of which form an integral part of this Agreement. In the event of discrepancies between the Specific Conditions and the General Conditions or Procurement Provisions, the Specific Conditions shall prevail.

2 OBJECTIVES OF THE PROJECT

- 2.1 The expected objectives of the Project are as follows:

The Project's planned effect(s) on society is: Forests and peatlands are protected from conversion into oil palm plantations (Impact statement).

The planned effects for the target group of the project are: The global knowledge about yield potential and yield gap for oil palm in Indonesia is increased; and Knowledge about the potential for extra oil palm production on existing cropland area and its potential land savings is increased for major stakeholders (outcome statements).

The planned main products and/or services of the Project are: Develop a GYGA atlas of yield potential and yield gaps for oil palm in existing plantation area located in mineral soils in Indonesia; and Engage local agricultural, preservation, and government stakeholders in discussions of how to develop and use the new oil palm atlas to increase food and environmental security (output statements).

3 IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PROJECT

- 3.1 The Project shall be implemented in accordance with the Agreement, including all annexes, and the latest approved Application, including implementation plan and budget.
- 3.2 During the implementation of the Project, the Grant Recipient shall exercise the necessary diligence, efficiency and transparency in line with sound financial management and best practise principles.
- 3.3 The Grant Recipient shall identify, assess and mitigate any relevant risks associated with the implementation of the Project, including the risk of corruption and other financial irregularities, and any potential negative effects that the Project may have on the environment and climate, gender equality and human rights.

4 THE GRANT

- 4.1 The Grant shall amount to maximum NOK 2 000 000 Norwegian Kroner (two million Norwegian kroner).
- 4.2 Disbursement after the current calendar year is subject to Norwegian Parliamentary appropriations.
- 4.3 The Grant, including accrued interest, shall be used exclusively to finance the actual costs of the implementation of the Project during the Support Period.
- 4.4 The Grant may be used to cover overheads/indirect costs up to a maximum of 7% of MFA's pro rata share of the actual costs of the Project.
- 4.5 The Grant Recipient is responsible for obtaining any additional resources which may be required to duly implement the Project.

5 DISBURSEMENT

- 5.1 The Grant shall be disbursed in advance installments based on the financial need of the Project for the upcoming period, which shall not exceed six months. The disbursements shall be made upon MFA's receipt of written disbursement requests from the Grant Recipient, describing the financial need for the period in question.
- 5.2 Financial need refers to the budgeted expenditure for the upcoming period, less any funds available to the Project from all other sources during the same period.
- 5.3 The financial need shall be documented through an updated financial statement for the Project and a reference to the latest approved implementation plan and budget.
- 5.4 The disbursement requests shall be signed by an authorised representative of the Grant Recipient. A confirmation that the Project is being implemented in accordance with the Agreement shall be included in the disbursement request.
