

Permanent Mission of Norway to the United Nations

Geneva Launch of the EAT-Lancet Commission Report on Healthy Diets from Sustainable Food Systems

Salle 14, Palais Des Nations, United Nations
Geneva, Switzerland
28 March 2019
09:00-11:15hrs

09:00 Welcome

EAT
International Trade Center

Mr. Olav Kjørven, Chief Strategy Officer
Ms. Arancha Gonzalez, Executive Director

09:10 The Report

Potsdam Institute for Climate Impact Research

Prof. Johan Rockström, Co-Director

09:30 Session 1: Dialogue with panel members

Significance of the report for ending malnutrition in all its forms. Debate on the need for policy coherence both within UN and at national level to achieve healthy sustainable diets.

Scaling Up Nutrition

UNICEF

World Health Organization

Wellcome Trust

Ms. Gerda Verburg, UN Assistant Secretary-General - Moderator
Dr. Victor Aguayo, Global Nutrition Programme, Chief
Dr. Francesco Branca, Nutrition for Health and Development, Director
Dr. Modi Mwatsama, Food Systems, Senior Science Lead

10:00 Q&A

10:15 Short video

10:20 Session 2: Dialogue with panel members

Alignment between the recommendations of the report and the SDGs. How can the SDG agenda help moving forward towards achieving healthy sustainable diets for all? How can the organizations encourage governments to act?

Government of Sweden

EAT

International Livestock Research institute

Academy of Int. Humanitarian Law & Human Rights

Dr. Anders Nordström, Global Health Ambassador – Moderator
Dr. Usman Mushtaq, Board of Trustees member
Ms. Shirley Tarawali, Assistant Director General
Dr. Christophe Golay, Senior Research Fellow

10:50 Q&A

11:05 Closing keynote

Norway Permanent Mission in Geneva

H.E Mr. Hans Brattskar, Ambassador